

Alliances

Bringing more to the table

We develop relationships with other industry leaders to offer clients a complete group life insurance solution.

Legal Services and Wellness Solutions

Ceridian LifeWorks

With a 30-year history of providing health and productivity solutions – including Employee Assistance Programs (EAP), WorkLife and Health and Wellness programs – Ceridian LifeWorks has a reputation of innovation quality, and customer service excellence.

Travel Assistance

Europ Assistance USA (EA)

For 45 years, EA has been helping travelers in emergency situations. Today, EA has 6,500 employees and a network of 450,000 service professionals – doctors, nurses, dentists, translators, drivers, pilots, escorts, attorneys, triage specialists – serving members in over 200 countries and territories worldwide.

Beneficiary Financial Counseling

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP (PwC)

We work with PwC to offer employers the option of adding a financial counseling program for beneficiaries. The PwC professionals who provide these services are experienced financial counselors who are trained in the need to maintain client confidentiality. Their sole concern is to provide independent and objective counseling. They do not sell investments or financial products.

Diversity Credits

North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company

By working with North Carolina Mutual, companies have the opportunity to fulfill their commitment to diversity while directing dollars to a minority-owned business. Founded in 1898, North Carolina Mutual is the only African-American owned and operated insurance company in the U.S.

International Coverage

Zurich International Life

We work with Zurich to develop solutions for multinational employers who want to provide life coverage for global employees and, at the same time, to streamline their life administration processes.

Municipal Pooling

Ochs, Inc.

Small and medium-sized municipal groups (fewer than 1,000 employees) can obtain the pricing advantage of large employers on group life insurance purchased through The Municipal Pool administered exclusively by Ochs, Inc. With more than 65 years of experience managing relationships with municipalities other public entities, Ochs, Inc. is an expert in understanding the needs of municipal clients.
